CPC opens 19th National Congress

The Communist Party of China (CPC) opened the 19th National Congress at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing on Oct 18th. The theme of the congress is to "remain true to our original aspiration and keep our mission firmly in mind, hold high the banner of socialism with Chinese characteristics, secure a decisive victory in building a moderately prosperous society in all respects, strive for the great success of socialism with Chinese characteristics for a new era, and work tirelessly to realize the Chinese Dream of national rejuvenation." The agenda includes:

- To hear and examine a report submitted by the 18th CPC Central Committee;
- To examine a work report of the 18th Central Commission for Discipline Inspection;
- To deliberate and adopt an amendment to the Party's Constitution;
- To elect the Party's 19th Central Committee and its 19th Central Commission for Discipline Inspection.

Xi Jinping delivers report to CPC Congress

Xi Jinping delivers a report to the 19th CPC National Congress on behalf of the 18th Central Committee of the CPC at the Great Hall of the People, in Beijing on Oct. 18.

The Communist Party of China (CPC) has rolled out the "Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era" and embarked on a journey to build a "great modern socialist country" as its 19th National Congress opened Wednesday.

Delivering a report at the opening session, Xi Jinping outlined a two-step approach to build China into a great modern socialist country after the completion of building a moderately prosperous society in all respects by 2020.

Hailing the historic achievements in reform, opening up, and socialist modernization in the past five years, Xi said socialism with Chinese characteristics has crossed the threshold into a new era. "This is a new historic juncture in China's development."
